Nearly 1 in 3 individuals over the age of 65 will fall and experience a significant injury related to that fall. More than 7 million Americans are living with a knee or hip replacement and another 31 million have osteoarthritis that impacts their quality of life. While these statistics are sobering, the great news is that fitness professionals who understand how to work with these issues are in the best position to help older adults regain balance and strength, so they can accomplish their health and fitness goals. In this one-day intensive workshop, the fitness professional will discover the number one reason so many older individuals experience osteoarthritis of the hips, knees, and spine as well as changes in their balance. Additionally, the fitness professional will discover how the principles of the Integrative Movement System™ can dramatically improve how older individuals move and how they feel while encouraging their clients to return to and or continue to do the things they need, want, and love to do. The fitness professional will leave this one-day workshop with a blueprint for empowering and inspiring their actively aging adult population.

Although technology makes things easier, the resulting convenience allows people to think and move less. BioExercise™ is an innovative new program that is grounded in science, exploding with new ways to move and engage all the senses. Combine activities for the body and mind to improve total body functionality, while learning to define and track outcomes to personalize results. Learn key strategies that incorporate brain boosters with purposeful movement to fast-track results. The comprehensive approach makes BioExercise™ especially beneficial for people over 50, while the flexibility of the program makes it easy to apply to existing formats you may already teach. Strengthen the body. Sharpen the mind. Do BioExercise™!

Learning Objectives:

1. Learn what common weaknesses and movement dysfunctions affect people over 50.
2. Use principles of Applied Functional Science (AFS) to develop purposeful physical exercises.
3. Improve brain-processing speed for better physical results using seven brain-boosting activities.
4. Apply the WECOACH formula based on six-directional movement to personalize exercises.
5. Use graded intervals to help identify optimal working intensity.

Thursday 11:00 a.m. - 7:00 p.m.*CECS: ACE and AFAA Pending

Mary Anne Snavelly, creator of The Lyne Methodology, will share her “common sense” methods to do a posture and alignment screening and then teach ways to use basic movement for muscular skeletal change. Mary Anne will share how optimal movement improves pelvic health and overall health. In this workshop, you will gain a deeper understanding of the importance of functional anatomy as a corrective tool and how neutral spine, neutral pelvis and ROM at the hip joint are at the root of normal pelvic floor muscle function and normal skeletal function. Mary Anne’s methods are easy to implement and help trainers from becoming overwhelmed when deciding on effective corrective solutions. This workshop will improve a trainer’s confidence with spine and pelvis alignment screenings and corrective exercise options.

PLYOGA® is a 4-part high intensity interval system using fundamental, fluent, and accelerated yoga postures as an active recovery for intense plyometric perfection. YOUR BODY IS POWER®

PLYOGA® was formed in 2013 with 2 primary purposes in mind. The first was to reinvent interval training to incorporate a true active recovery measure with the goal being true safety and effective fitness in all planes of motion. The second is to give many athletes and group exercise enthusiasts, who favored boot-camp style workouts, an avenue to where they could also emphasize their flexibility, balance, and muscle elongation. PLYOGA® is highly modifiable and can be taught without equipment or music cueing at any venue. Come learn about our trainer incentives and get your continuing education units.
