Workshop GE, PT

Athleticism Meets Grace and Power with Body Bar's unique approach to the Barre! This total body workout originating from the deep core out to the extremities will define your line, activate muscle fibers, and awaken powerful movement skills you never knew you had. Master dynamic balance with core control while enhancing muscular strength, endurance and definition. Develop the power and grace of a dancer or athlete and the body that looks like one too!

215 Zumba Fitness® Party –April Smith
Workshop GE

Exhilarating Moves, Live Music, Non-Stop Energy! Get down and dance with The Zumba Performance Team like you've never experienced! The Zumba program is no longer the best kept secret in town. It's a global "Fitness Revolution" with more than 12 million Zumba enthusiasts all over the world – dancing and partying to the Zumba beat. Since 2001, the Zumba program has spread like wildfire, and has become the single most influential movement in the fitness industry. Why? Because it's the best and healthiest party around. Come experience the Latin passion, exotic rhythms and sexy beats that no other fitness program can offer you. Experience new choreography techniques, and a non-stop, get-down-and-dance, calorie burning, high-energy workout! Feeling the music and getting fit never felt so good!

216 Surge® Reactive Resistance Training – Casey Stutzman
Workshop GE, PT

From the people that brought you BOSU®, meet Surge®, a water-filled tool that imposes top-down instability the way it happens in life. Imagine a firefighter holding a surging hose, a parent holding a wiggling toddler, or an MMA fighter breaking a hold. Surge harnesses the physics of quickly-changing fluid dynamics to replicate unstable demands on the body and creates incredible think-react muscle actions. Learn the techniques, methods and overload principles to orchestrate reactive stability exercises that challenge even your fittest clients.

217 Bodyblade®: Burn, Baby, Burn – Nadine Stewart
Workshop GE, MB, PT

To kick start a stale fitness routine you have to force your body past the point in a workout when it wants to say uncle—without overtraining. The Bodyblade offers variable resistance without requiring a change in equipment AND it's impossible to over train. As soon as your muscles fatigue, you won't be able to keep the Bodyblade in motion. Switching between high-intensity cardio and strength moves every minute for an hour will keep your body guessing and your heart rate up. You can do anything for a minute... so let it burn!

218 LTS: LeBarre! – Jenn Hall
Workshop GE, MB, PT

Taking the hottest trend in dance-inspired conditioning and using a “make-sense progression” to create a format suitable for every level of exerciser, LeBARRE is a session like no other! Experience awareness through movement (ATM) verbally commanded lesson chosen for its specific influence on the Pilates Fundamentals.

220 Peak Pilates®: Reformer Variations – Zoey Trap
Workshop GE, MB, PT

Variations can spice up any reformer session, keeping students on their toes, while challenging their physical ability and concentration. Add a little salt and pepper to your reformer workouts by learning more about how and why to use variations, and then by getting down to it and picking up new twists on the old classics. After, all variety is the spice of life.

221 SPINNING®: Challenging Endurance! - Mark Tickner
Workshop CY

There are many types of endurance sessions, from flat road higher cadence endurance, to big gear flats, rolling terrain, fast / slow tempo work and more. Once you understand the basic concepts you can then have fun with your class design, training and progress riders easily week after week with little or no thought involved. Spend minimal time putting fun, effective and challenging endurance classes together time and time again!

222 Out With the Old and In With the Olders – Bernadette O'Brien & Lawrence Biscontini

Workshop AQ, GE, MB, PT, S

Join Lawrence & Bernadette for a theoretical and practical application of what it means to train “seniors” today versus just a few years ago. Teaching to this population, the “chronologically enriched,” involves a new mindset and a new toolbox for today's group and personal trainers. This team – with a combined age over 130 years – will share with you a discussion of “age”, new general guidelines, and practical stories of movements, successes and inspiration that you can take to your older clients with a fresh approach.

223 The Perfection Detox™ - The Lecture – Petra Kolber
Lecture AQ, CY, GE, MB, PT, S

There is a disease that has become an epidemic in the fitness industry and it's called perfectionism. Striving to be perfect kills dreams and robs you of joy and purpose. And the data is in, proving beyond any doubt that in addition to reducing the quality of your life it can also take years off your life. What you believe your clients perceive. As a leader and coach, your beliefs profoundly affect the success of your clients. That means you can help your students and clients elevate, not only their level of success but also their self-esteem. But, first, you must raise your level of confidence and know that you are more than good enough.

This session reveals how you can move away from the pursuit of perfection and toward giving yourself, as Tal Ben-Shahar says, "the permission to be human."

224 Schwinn® Cycling: Girl Power – Julz Arney, Shannon Fable, Doris Thews & R. Vaziralli
Workshop CY

Who runs the world? For many instructors the majority, if not all, of the riders in the room are women. In this workshop, a team of Schwinn's top female trainers will give you 5 ways to win with the women in your rides and keep them coming back for more. Experience a sample workout filled with power (and empowerment!), measurement and motivation that's fabulous, fierce, and the perfect fit for this audience.

225 How To Be An Anti Aging Exercise Specialist – Pete McCall
Lecture AQ, GE, MB, PT S

From plastic surgery to vitamins to hormone shots the anti-aging market is a multi-billion dollar industry yet the aging process is an inevitable part of the human life cycle that can't be stopped. The biological aging process effects a number of normal physiological functions in the human body but understanding how to develop exercise programs to stimulate certain hormones and improve integrity of the myo-fascial system can help slow-down and minimize the effects of aging process. This workshop will review how aging creates change in the human body and will address specific exercise program design strategies that can help your clients retain their youthful energy and appearance.

226 Body Bar® Aqua Flex – Laura Ribbins
Workshop AQ

The Aqua Flex bar is the same as the versatile Body Bar Flex, but redesigned for use in water fitness classes. The bar is very lightweight, flexible, and buoyant; plus its variable resistance adds to the natural resistance of the body's movement through the water for a very effective workout. Using many of the same moves as in Body Bar Flex exercise programming, the Aqua Flex Program is an effective, low-impact workout for developing muscular strength and endurance, core conditioning, and dynamic flexibility, as well as being a fun and unique way to exercise in the water. The Aqua Flex Workout is a series of 20 moves that can be incorporated into existing water fitness classes, either shallow or deep water workouts. The exercises are designed to target all major muscle groups and because most of the moves are compound in nature, functional fitness is enhanced and improved agility and coordination are a positive side effect. Cardiovascular benefits can be enhanced by performing the moves while moving through the water with standard water fitness locomotor movements.

GROUP 3 FRIDAY 8/1/14
11:30 A.M. – 1:00 P.M.

227 Ultimate Sandbag Training Metabolic Stability – Josh Henkin
Workshop GE, PT

Combining the benefits of both stability and metabolic training can seem impossible and contradicting. Metabolic Stability will show how to integrate these methods into a innovative and fun fitness system. How you see stability and metabolic training will completely transform.

228 Re-CREATE your workout ... GROOVE IT! The GROOVE™ Experience – Misty Tripoli
Workshop GE, MB

THEGROOVE™ is Ultimate Functional full body workout! It is easy to flex the muscles of the body, but how often do we allow our students to flex their very important muscle of creativity or are we always defining it for them? This session explores creative ways to functionally train the body that improve agility, speed, explosive power, endurance, higher brain function and the muscle of creativity! We will also explore ways to train the many critical body parts that are left out of the "typical" workout like eyes, ears, fingers and toes. If you can move it, you can GROOVE it! Get creative, jump out of the box and see what is possible when you give your students the ability to use their mind and bodies creatively! Simplify and GROOVE!

229 C.H.E.K INSTITUTE Effective Flexibility Training: You Don't Have to Tie Yourself in Knots! – Tomi Toles
Lecture GE, MB, PT

Join this ACE, Can-Fit Pro, and IDEA Award Recipient for thoughts on sharpening your instructional skills, becoming a presenter, or attracting media attention beyond what your peers do. This lecture will give you oodles of ideas on ways to improve your present career. Learn the importance of beginning and ending sessions, developing themes, retaining your clients, owning the stage, and more!

237 Schwinn® Cycling: Class Design Crunch Time – Shannon Fable

Workshop CY

Every instructor knows that an awesome class comes from preparation and planning; every great instructor knows how to develop that class in less time! This workshop is all about working smarter, not harder to put great rides together. You'll learn multiple class design tricks of the trade and walk away with a library of 25 mix and match stages you can use immediately to create a ride from scratch or re-energize a well-loved workout.

238 Training For the 55 Plus Populations, Effective Strategies For Improving Balance, Power and Mobility – Dan Ritchie

Lecture AQ, GE, MB, PT, S

You will learn how to safely and effectively train your older clients to improve Power, Balance and Mobility. We will discuss Power Training methods and why strength training alone does not impact Power improvement. Why strength training without Balance training can actually worsen Balance. Why Mobility is a huge determinant of independence and quality of life and why we should be training our clients for greater Mobility and Balance.

239 Stop Seated Stress with Integrated Core Training (AQUA) – Laurie Denomme

Workshop AQ

Sitting at a computer, an extended commute, an inactive lifestyle, or any long hours in a seated position can lead to muscle shut down. Reduce, eliminate, or prevent related joint and muscle pain by using a series of 3-dimensional standing, kneeling, and seated aquatic exercise progressions. Movement dysfunction is prevalent among individuals who dedicate many hours to sitting, resulting in hand-wrist, neck-shoulder, and low back musculoskeletal disorders. Learn why sitting is a core activity and how this simple strategy can be used to sit-proof the body!

FRIDAY 8/1/14 1:00 P.M. – 1:55 P.M.

ActivMotion Bar Disruptive Training with Robert Sherman

Workshop GE, PT

The essence of Disruptive Training is to engage the mind and body to establish efficient movement patterns and elicit positive long-term change in the body's ability to move. In the Disruptive Training workshop, fitness professionals will learn how to significantly improve their client's levels of neuromuscular coordination and fitness by challenging them with a completely new training stimulus - the ActivMotion Bar. Through the client's experience with the multisensory Disruptive Training stimulus, they will progressively: Disrupt their habitual movement patterns as the unstable load pulls them out of position, thus encouraging activation and strengthening of under-active muscles; Discover how to integrate movement through the entire kinetic chain as they feel and hear the shifting weight and continuously connect their mind and muscles to correct the instability; and Define movement learned in the prior two phases by being challenged with large, multi-planar, athletic exercises that require all kinesthetic systems to engage and complement one another. Instructors will learn how to progressively disrupt, discover and define in core, balance and strength based movements to stimulate their client's neuromuscular system to change and adapt with a higher level of fitness and better coordination. Combining the benefits of both stability and metabolic training can seem impossible and contradicting. Metabolic Stability will show how to integrate these methods into an innovative and fun fitness system. How you see stability and metabolic training will completely transform.

GROUP 4 FRIDAY 8/1/14 2:00 P.M. – 4:00 P.M.

258 Recovery: The Forgotten Training Variable – Pete McCallWorkshop GE, MB, PT

Do you have clients who love to exercise but can't seem to reach their goals or who exercise vigorously everyday yet can't seem to lose any weight? Do you work with recreational athletes who love to train and compete but can't seem to improve their times or performance? The typical mentality is that if a little exercise is good for us, then more must be better, however overtraining is a serious issue with detrimental consequences. Simply increasing volume and intensity of the training stimulus may not be the best way to overcome a plateau; in fact another way to consider overtraining is that the client is under-recovered. This workshop will help you to identify if your clients suffer from overtraining and provide you with program design strategies to help your clients move towards their goals and avoid the negative consequences of being under-recovered.

259 Peak Pilates®: Pilates Fit! - Kathryn CoyleWorkshop GE, MB

SATURDAY 8/2/14 1:00 P.M. – 1:55 P.M.

ActivMotion Bar Disruptive Training with Robert Sherman
Workshop GE, PT

The essence of Disruptive Training is to engage the mind and body to establish efficient movement patterns and elicit positive long-term change in the body's ability to move. In the Disruptive Training workshop, fitness professionals will learn how to significantly improve their client's levels of neuromuscular coordination and fitness by challenging them with a completely new training stimulus - the ActivMotion Bar. Through the client's experience with the multisensory Disruptive Training stimulus, they will progressively: Disrupt their habitual movement patterns as the unstable load pulls them out of position, thus encouraging activation and strengthening of under-active muscles; Discover how to integrate movement through the entire kinetic chain as they feel and hear the shifting weight and continuously connect their mind and muscles to correct the instability; and Define movement learned in the prior two phases by being challenged with large, multi-planar, athletic exercises that require all kinesthetic systems to engage and complement one another. Instructors will learn how to progressively disrupt, discover and define in core, balance and strength based movements to stimulate their client's neuromuscular system to change and adapt with a higher level of fitness and better coordination. Combining the benefits of both stability and metabolic training can seem impossible and contradicting. Metabolic Stability will show how to integrate these methods into an innovative and fun fitness system. How you see stability and metabolic training will completely transform.

310 Exercise Programming For the Fountain Of Youth: Part Two – Pete McCall

Workshop GE, MB, PT, S

Exercise is a function of movement where coordinated movement is a skill that can be taught. The more we learn about the fascial system the more we realize that all muscles are interconnected yet many exercises are designed to work on only one muscle group or body part at a time. Movement-based exercises help the fascial system to retain its elastic function and resiliency; this session will review the science behind movement-based training as well as provide specific strategies on how to use progressions and regressions of common exercise movements to help clients use exercise to retain their youthful energy and appearance. Upon completion of this workshop the participant will be able to: describe how fascial structures function as integrated systems to accelerate, stabilize and decelerate movement, how to teach clients exercises based on integrated movement patterns instead of isolated muscle or joint actions and how to demonstrate how to provide appropriate feedback to progress a client through the stages of motor learning.
